

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

OCTOBER 2023 £5.99

29. NICK MOUNT has been blowing glass since the mid 70's and is celebrated as one of the most important and influential figures in contemporary Australian studio glass. With a focus on form, colour, texture and detail, his work is bold and gestural, soft and seductive, playful and provocative. Visit nickmountglass.com.au and follow @nickmountglass on Instagram.

30. THE WOVEN HUT was founded by Afia Johnson, paying homage to her Ghanaian heritage. It was built from a love of African artistry and her passion to showcase and support the talent of African artisans.

The Woven Hut partners with cooperatives across Africa to offer an array of luxurious, culturally inspired pieces all made with indigenous materials and resources. Visit www.thewovenhut.com and find more of their work @thewovenhut on Instagram.

31. BYRON & GÓMEZ introduces their new handle collection, designed for lovers of natural materials and beautiful interiors. Crafted in their Somerset workshop, they offer three designs in various timbers and finishes, from scorched Oak to whitened Ash with a choice of brass or bronze pillars. Visit byronandgomez.co.uk and follow @byronandgomez on Instagram.

32. RURAL RANGES LTD – The Bespoke Cooker Company. The finest reconditioned Agas, produced to order entirely to your specifications. Offering a unique range of custom finishes and a custom colour matching service. Also stocking exquisite Lacanche and Bertazzoni range cookers. A family company with exemplary customer service. Visit www.ruralranges.com email info@ruralranges.co.uk or call 01308 488994.

33. MATTHEW SAMSON, a self-taught artist from Las Vegas, creates unique sculptures and paintings from ancient meteorites. His art explores the cosmic dance of life and death, connecting us to the universe. Visit matthewsamsonart.com or email mattsamsonart@gmail.com

34. MAISON & CO. has been importing a highly curated collection of timeless European antiques since 2012, specialising in the Swedish Gustavian, French Louis XVI, as well as Swedish Rococo and Baroque periods. With their fresh palette and boutique-inspired approach, they have become a trusted source for private buyers and interior designers worldwide. Visit maisonandco.com and follow @maisonandco on Instagram.

35. London-based YASEMIN TOYGAR's eponymous luxury furniture brand creates sculptural furniture handcrafted in an artisanal atelier in Istanbul. The brand explores and defies the boundaries of sensory meaning in everyday objects through playful designs that reflect the harmony of contrasts of colours and textures, using an array of materials such as marble, onyx, brass and velver. Visit www.yasemintoygar.com and follow @yasemin_toygar on Instagram.

36. Experience opulence with ADUWHAM's sustainable luxury candles. Picture the fusion of a historical journal and exquisite perfume bottles, artfully capturing Africa's essence. Each candle holds pure fragrances that weave tales of cultural symbols. Discover the collection at www.aduwhamfie.com and follow @aduwhamofficial on Instagram.

37. ARCHITECTURAL CERAMICS create bespoke ceramic pieces designed to integrate seamlessly into the architecture of a home. Their inspired and diverse pieces are characterised by relief murals, three dimensional sculptures and handmade tiles. Featured here is a custom terracotta fireplace in Fisher Island, Miami for Taylor & Taylor Inc. The lead designer is Elle Leonard Dean and the designing sculptor is Charles Dean. Find out more at elletteryleonard.com and email at etlarchitecturalceramics@gmail.com or follow @elle.leonard11 on Instagram.